Financial Services Guide for International Medical Only Travel Insurance

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is designed to help you make an informed decision about the travel insurance services provided by Southern Cross Travel Insurance (SCTI, us, we). This document also advises how SCTI is remunerated for providing these financial services and how SCTI will deal with complaints and disputes. The FSG is provided to you with the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) that contains information about the policy benefits, features, exclusions and terms and conditions of cover. The PDS also outlines the risks of the product to assist you in making an informed decision about whether to buy the product or not. The FSG is effective from 12 July 2025.

About Southern Cross Travel Insurance

Southern Cross Benefits Ltd, trading as Southern Cross Travel Insurance (SCTI), ABN 99 133 401 939, AFS Licence No 331058, is the insurer of this policy. SCTI is an Australian financial services licensee authorised to deal in and provide general advice on general insurance products.

Remuneration

With SCTI, you are dealing direct with the insurer. We pay commission to entities that refer clients to us. This commission is calculated as either a percentage of the premiums paid or as a flat fee for each policy purchased or each referral. You can request particulars of any commission we pay relating to your policy within a reasonable period of time after you receive this FSG or before your policy is issued.

Complaints

If you have a complaint or dispute about the services we provide to you, please follow our Internal Disputes Resolution (IDR) process. You can find out more about these processes in your PDS and on our website. If you have any questions, please get in touch with us.

If an issue has not been resolved to your satisfaction, you can follow our External Dispute Resolution (EDR) process and refer the matter to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA), of which SCTI is a member.

AFCA provides fair and independent financial services complaint resolution that is free to consumers.

For more information or to access the AFCA process, please call 1800 931 678 (free call), email info@afca.org.au or visit www.afca.org.au.

Please refer to your PDS and go to our website to view our IDR and EDR processes.

Privacy
